Proud owners, top animals and striking breed products

Part 1

Being the National Show of the Poultry Union, the Noordshow is the place to enter new creations to be judged and – when approved – recognised to the Dutch Poultry Standard. January 2009 a record number of new creations were exhibited. From the 22 entered creations 16 were recognised! Pity the lighting in the Halls was not optimum for taking photos. Still our photographer Peter van den Top succeeded in photographing a large number of the beautiful birds at this exposition.
